12. Replacement of defaced, lost or destroyed registration.—If a registration granted under this order is defaced, lost or destroyed, an application furnishing true and correct information in such form as may be required by the Registration Authority may be made to him for grant of a duplicate registration after paying the fees specified in sub-clause(2) of Clause 5 and the Registration Authority may after making such inquiry as he deems fit, grant a duplicate registration.

13. Power to refuse registration.—The Registration Authority may, after giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard and for reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse to grant or renew a registration.

14. Contravention of conditions of registration.—No holder of a registration granted under this Order or his agent or servant or any other person acting on his behalf shall contravene any of the terms or conditions of the registration and if any such holder or his agent or servant or any other person acting on his behalf, contravenes any of the said terms or conditions, then without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him, his registration may be cancelled or suspended by order in writing by the Registration Authority :

Provided that no order shall be made under this clause unless the registered dealer has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

15. Forfeiture of security deposit.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of clause 9 of this Order if the Registration Authority is satisfied that the registered dealer has contravened any of the terms and conditions of the registeration and that a forfeiture of his security deposit is called for, it may, after giving the registered dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard by order forfeit the whole or any part of the security deposited by him and communicate a copy of the order to such a registered dealer.

(2) The registered dealer shall, if the amount of security at any time falls short of the amount specified in clause 6 forthwith deposit, further security to make up that amount on being required by the Registration Authority to do so.

(3) Upon the compliance by the registered dealer with all obligations under the Registration, the amount of security or such part thereof, which is not forfeited as aforesaid, shall be returned to the registered dealer after the termination of the registration.

16. Appeal.—(1) Any person aggrieved by any order of the Registration Authority refusing to grant or renew a registration or cancelling or suspending a registration or forfeiting the security deposited by the registered dealer under the provisions of this Order may appeal to the Appellate Authority notified by the Government within thirty days of the date of receipt by him of such order.

(2) No such appeal shall be disposed of unless the aggrieved person has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) Pending the disposal of an appeal, the Appellate Authority may pass an order that the order under appeal shall not take effec t until such appeal is disposed of.

17. Powers of entry, search, seizure, etc.—(1) The Registration Authority or any other Officer, authorised by the State Government in this behalf may, with a view to, securing compliance with this order or to satisfying, himself that the provisions of this order have not been contravened.—

(a) require the owner, occupier or any other person incharge of any place, premises, vehicle, or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this order of the conditions of any registration issued thereunder has been, or is about to be committed, to produce any book, accounts or other documents showing transactions relating to such contraventions and take or cause to be taken, extracts from or copies of such books of accounts or other documents produced before him ;

(b) enter, inspect or break open and search any place or premises, vehicle or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this order or the conditions of any registration granted thereunder has been, is being, or is about to be committed.

(c) search, seize and remove stocks of and the animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyances used in carrying the tea in contravention of the provisions of this order, or of the conditions of the registration granted thereunder, and thereafter take or authorise the taking of all measures necessary,—

(i) for securing the production of stocks of tea so seized before the Collector as required by Section 6-A, or in a Court ; and

(ii) for securing the production of the animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyances so seized in a Court ;and for their safe custody pending such production.

(2) The provisions of Section 100 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act II of 1974) relating to search and seizure shall, so far as may be, apply to searches and seizures under this clause.

18. Power to grant exemptions.—The State Government may, if it is necessary in the public interest so to do, by order exempt any person or class of persons from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Order for such period and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified, and may at any time suspend or cancel such exemption.

19. Power to call for and examine records and proceedings in certain cases.—The State Government may, suo motu or an application made to it by an aggrieved person, at any time call for and examine the record of any enquiry, or proceedings of any authority exercising or failing to exercise the powers under this order to suspend or cancel any registration granted for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any decision or order passed by such Officer and so as to regularise the proceedings of such Officer and may pass such order thereon as it thinks fit :

Provided that the State Government shall not pass any order under this clause which adversely affects any dealer unless such dealer has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(d) it shall not be in contravention of any provisions of the Act, rules, or bye-laws ;

(e) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions, or defamatory statements, nor shall it refer to the conduct or character of persons except in their official or public capacity; and

(f) it shall not relate to any matter which is under adjudication by a court of law.

33. President to decide admissibility of a resolution — (1) The President shall decide the admissibility of a resolution and may disallow any resolution or a part thereof when in his opinion it does not comply with these rules.

(2) Where the form or wording of a resolution is, in the opinion of the President requires amendment to secure compliance with these rules, the President may amend the resolution and inform the member accordingly.

(3) If any doubt arises whether any resolution or is not contravention of these rules the President shall decide the point and his decision shall be final.

(4) If the President disallows any resolution, the fact of such disallowance shall be communicated in writing to the councillor who has given notice of such resolution indicating the reasons for disallowance.

34. List of Resolutions.—The Municipal Commissioner, or the Chief Officer, as the case may be, shall prepare a list of all resolutions admitted and arrange them in the order in which notices are received in point of time. A list of admitted resolutions, so arranged shall be sent to each councillor along with the notice of the meetings.

35. Movings of Resolution.—(1) A councillor in whose name a resolution stands in the list of resolutions shall, except when he wishes to withdraw it, when called upon, move the resolution, in which case he shall commence his speech by a formal motion in the terms appearing in the list of resolutions :

Provided that the councillor may with the permission of the presiding authority, authorise any other member, in whose name the same resolution stands lower in the list of resolutions to move it on his behalf and the member so authorised may move accordingly.

(2) If the councillor when called on is absent any other councillor authorised by him in writing in this behalf may with the permission of the presiding authority move the resolution standing in his name.

36. Limits of discussion.—The discussion of a resolution shall be strictly limited to the subject of the resolution.

37. Order of debate.—After a resolution is duly moved and seconded, other councillors may speak on the resolution in such order as the presiding authority may direct and thereafter the mover may reply to the debate.

38 Time limit of speeches.—No speech on a resolution shall except with the permission of the presiding authority exceed five minutes duration, provided that a mover of the resolution when moving the same may speak for ten minutes.

39. Terms of orginal motion and amendment to be read.—When an amendment to any resolution is moved or when two or more such amendments are moved, the presiding authority shall, before taking the sense of the municipal council thereon, state or read to the municipal council the terms of the original motion, and the amendment or amendments proposed.

40. Withdrawal of resolution or amendment.—No discussion shall be permitted on a motion for leave to withdraw a resolution or amendment except with the permission of the presiding authority.

41. Presiding authority may close discussion.—When in the opinion of the presiding authority a resolution or an amendment thereto has-been sufficiently discussed, he may close the discussion by calling upon the mover to reply.

42. Resolution not discussed.—If a resolution which has been admitted is not discussed during a meeting or an adjourned meeting it shall be deemend to have been withdrawn.

43. Repetition of resolution.—When a resolution has been moved and voted upon or withdrawn with the leave of the municipal council, no resolution or amendment raising substantially the same question shall be moved during the same meeting.

44. Other provisions applicabale to resolutions.—(1) The provisions of section 58 relating to motions and amendments shall mutatis mutandis apply to resolutions and amendments to resolutions.

(2) Save as provided in rules 30 to 42 the other provisions of these rules relating to procedure and conduct of business in the municipal council, and the rules applicable to motions shall apply in the case of a resolution.

Part IV–Interpellations

45. Admitted question to be included in the Agenda.—(1) All questions which are admitted by the President shall be included in the agenda.

(2) The order in which questions are desired to be answered shall be indicated by the Councillors and if no such orders is indicated the questions shall be placed in the agenda in the order in which notices are received in point of time.

46. List of questions.—The Municipal Commissioner or the Chief Officer shall prepare a list of all questions admitted and arrange them in the order in which notices are received in point of time. A list of admitted questions so arranged shall be circulated to the councillors one hour before the meeting.

47. Mode of asking questions.—(1) When the time for answering interpellations arrives, the presiding authority shall call successively each councillor in whose name a question appears in the list of questions in the order in which the question appears in the list.

(2) The councillor so called shall raise in his place and unless he states that it is not his intention to ask the question standing in his name, ask the question by reference to its number on the list of questions.

48. Questions of absent councillors.—If a councillor who has given notice of a question is not present at the time when he is called upon by the presiding authority, the presiding authority may permit any other councillor to put such question, if so authorised in writing by such councillor.

49. Supplimentary questions.—Any Councillor may with the permission of the presiding authority put a supplementary question for the purpose of further elucidation of any matter of fact regarding which an answer has been given.

50. Disallowance of supplimentary questions.—The presiding authority shall disallow any supplementary question if in his opinion, it infringes the provisions applicable to questions, or if a sufficient or reasonable number of supplementary questions has already been put in respect of the principal question, or if in his opinion it cannot be satisfactorily answered without reference to records or without sufficient notice.

51. Discussion during question time not to be permitted.—No discussion shall be permitted during the time allotted for answering interpellations in respect of any question or of any answer given to a question.

Part V Standing Committee

52. Election of members of the Standing Committee.—The election of members of the Standing Committies shall be held at a meeting of the municipal council ordinarely during the month immediately preceding the month in which the term of members of the Standing Committee expires.

53. Presiding authority.—The meeting for the election of the members of the Standing Committee shall be presided over by the President or in his absence by the Vice-President or in the absence of both the President and the Vice-President by a councillor not intending to stand as a candidate at the election chosen by the members present at the meeting to preside for the occasion.

54. Nomination of candidates.—Every candidate for election shall be proposed by a councillor and seconded by another councillor. A candidate who has been proposed and seconded may withdraw his candidature by making a statement to that effect at the meeting of the council. The names of all the candidates who have been proposed and seconded and who have not withdrawn their candidature shall be read out by the person presiding.

55. Procedure in uncontested elections.—(1) If the number of candidates whose names are so read out is equal to the number of vacancies, the person presiding at the meeting shall declare all such candidates as duly elected.

(2) If the number of such candidates is less than the number of vacancies, the person presiding shall declare all such candidates as duly elected and shall either call for fresh nomination or adjourn the election to fill up the remaining vacancy or vacancies to the next meeting of the council.

56. Procedure in contested elections.—If the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies the votes of the councillors present at the meeting shall be taken by ballot. The Chief Officer or the Municipal Commissioner shall make adequate arrangements to secure secrecy of the ballot.

57. Manner of voting.—Every councillor wishing to vote shall be supplied with a voting paper on which the names of all the such candidates shall be typed, printed or stencilled in the following form in the alphabetical order.

	Name	Vote
(1)	...	...

Each Councillor shall then proceed to the place set apart for the purpose and there, place a cross mark against the name of the candidate or the names of the candidates for whom he wishes to vote. He shall then fold up the voting paper so as to cancel his vote and deposite the same in a ballot box placed in the view of the person presiding at the meeting. The ballot box shall be so constructed that the voting paper may be placed therein but not extracted therefrom without the box being opened. The person presiding at the meeting shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of two councillors (other than candidates) who shall be nominated by the person presiding.

58. Declartion of result of election.—The candidate who obtains the largest number of votes or if there is more than one vacancy, as many of the candidates at the top of the poll as there are vacancies to be filled, shall be declared to have been duly elected. If there be any equality of votes between any two or more candidates and the addition of one vote to any one or more of such candidates will entitle him or them to be declared duly elected, the person presiding at the meeting shall decide by drawing lots in the presence of the councillors to which one or more candidates such additional vote shall be deemed to have been given.

59. Validity of votes.—Any voting paper which contains the signature of writing of any of the voting councillor or on which marks are places against more candidates than there are vacancies to be filled shall be invalid.

PART VI–Procedure and Conduct of Business of Standing Commites

60. Procedure and conduct of business of Standing Committees.—Save as otherwise provided in these rules the provisions applicable to the conduct of business of a meeting of municipal council shall mutatis mutandis apply to the conduct of business of a meeting of a committee as if meetings of committees were included in all references to meetings of municipal council contained in those provisions.

61. Power of persons presiding in the absence of Chairman.—The person presiding over a meeting of a committee in the absence of the Chairman shall when so presiding have the same powers as the Chairman when so presiding and all references to the Chairman shall be deemad to be reference to any person so presiding.

62. Procedure during meetings.—A proposal before a committee need not be formally seconded or read to the meeting; Members need not stand while speaking and there shall be no restriction to a proposal being withdrawn or modified.

63. Meetings of the Standing Committee.—There shall be a meeting of the Standing Committee at least once a fortnight and at such other as may be found necessary.

64. Secretary of the committee.—The Municipal Council may appoint a municipal officer to act as Secretary of Standing Committee to help the Chairman in transacting the business of the committee.

65. Agenda.—The Chairman of the Standing Committee or the Secretary under the instructions of the Chairman shall prepare an abstract of the business to be transacted at each meeting and circulate it to each member at least one day before the date of the meeting. No business other than that entered in the abstract shall be disposed of at any meeting except with the concurrence of the members present.

66. Adjournment.—If a quorum is not present at a meeting of any committee, the meeting shall be adjourned to some other day not more than seven days from the date of such adjournment and the businses which ought to have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place shall be transacted at such meeting.

67. Notification of decisions.—The standing committee may alter or reverse its own decision after recording reasons, provided the same members or majority of them be present to review such decision. But no decision, ruling or practice introduced by a previous standing committee shall be altered without the sanction of the council.

68. Minutes of proceedings.—(1) The minutes of every meeting shall be placed at the following meeting of the committee and may if necessary be corrected so as to make clear the sense of the original reference.

(2) The minutes shall also be laid before the ordinary meeting on the municipal council in the following month.

69. Residuary jurisdiction of Standing Committee —If the council determines more than one committee, the jurisdiction should be determined by the council in a general body meeting.

70. Absence from meeting.—Any member of a Standing Committee absent from three successive meetings of the committee except on account of his ill-health or of his previously notifying the committee verbally or in writing his inability to attend for a definite period, such period not exceeding three months in any case, shall be considered by the committee at its option to have vacated his seat on the committee permanently for the remaining period of his office of the committee. His place shall be filled up by the council.

71. Perusal of records by member of Standing Committee.—Every member of the Standing Committee shall be entitled to peruse or inspect any paper or documents or records of the Municipal Council provided that he does not make or take away copies of any municipal record without the written permission of the President

APPENDIX

Summary of the main provisions of the Act

MANOEUVRES

1. Power of provincial Government to authorise manoeuvres.—(1) The provincial Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, authorise the execution of military manoeuvres over any area specified in the notification during a specified period not exceeding three months :

Provided that the same area or any part thereof shall not ordinarily be so specified more than once in any period of three years.

(2) The provincial Government shall publish notice of its intention to the notification under sub-section (1) as early as possible in advance of the issue of the notification, and no such notification shall be issued until the expiry of three months from the date of the first publication of such notice in the local official Gazette.

(3) The notice required by sub-section (2) shall be given by publication in the local official Gazette and shall also be given throughout the area which it is proposed to specify in the notification by publication in the manner prescribed by rules made under section 13 and shall be repeated by like publication one month and one week as nearly as may be before the commencement of the manoeuvres.

2. Powers exercisable for purposes of manoeuvres.—(1) Where a notification under sub-section (1) of section 2 has been issued, such persons as are included in the military forces engaged in the manoeuvres may within the specified limits and during the specified periods—

(a) pass over, or encamp, construct military works of a temporary character or execute military manoeuvres on, the area specified in the notification, and

(b) supply themselves with water from any source of water in such area :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise the taking off water from any source of supply, whether belonging to a private owner or a public authority, of an amount in excess of the reasonable requirements of the military forces or of such amount as to curtail the supply ordinarily required by those entitled to the use of such water supply.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not authorise entry on or interference with any well or tank held sacred by any religious community or any place of worship or ground attached thereto except for the legitimate purpose of offering prayers or any place or building reserved or used for the disposal of the dead or any dwelling house or premises attached thereto or any educational institution. factory, workshop or store or any premises used for the carrying on of any trade, business or manufacture or any garden or pleasure ground, or any ancient monument as defined in section 2 of the Ancient Monuments Preservation Act, 1904.

3. Duty of Officer Commanding to repair damage.—The Officers in Command of the military forces engaged in the manoeuvres shall cause all lands used under the powers conferred by this Chapter to be restored, as soon and as far as practicable, to their previous conditions.

4. Right to compensation or damage caused by manoeuvres.—Where a notification issued under section 2 authorises the execution of military manoeuvres compensation shall be payable from the Defence Estimates for any damage to person or property or interference with rights or privileges arising from such manoeuvres including expenses reasonably incurred in protecting person property rights and privileges.

5. (1) The Collector of the district in which any area utilised for the purpose of manoeuvres is situated shall depute one or more Revenue Officers to accompany the forces engaged in the manoeuvres for the purpose of determining the amount of any compensation payable under section 5.

(2) The Revenue Officer shall consider all claims for compensation under section 5 and determine on local investigation and where possible after hearing the claimant, the amount of compensation, if any, whch shall be awarded in each case; and shall disburse on the spot to the claimant the compensation so determined as payable.

(3) Any claimant, dissatisfied with a refusal of the Revenue Officer to award him compensation or with the amount of compensation awarded to him by the Revenue Officer, may, at any time within fifteen days from the communication to him to the decision of the Revenue Officer, give notice of the Revenue Officer of his intention to appeal against the decision.

(4) Where any such notice has been given, the Collector of the district shall constitute a commission consisting of himself as chairman, a person nominated by the Officer Commanding the forces engaged in the manoeuvres and two persons nominated by the District Board and the commission shall decide all appeals of which notice has been given.

(5) The commission may exercise its powers notwithstanding the absence of any member of the commission and the chairman of the commission shall have a casting vote in the case of an equal division of opinion.

(6) The decision of the commission shall be final and no suit shall lie in any Civil Court in respect of any matter decided by the commission.

(7) No fee shall be charged in connection with any claim, notice, appeal, application or document filed before the Revenue Officer, Collector or the commission under this section.

6. If, within the area and during the period specified in a notification offences under sub-section (1) of section 2, any person—

(a) wilfully obstructs or interferes with the execution of the manoeuvres, or

(b) without due authority enters or remains in any camp, or

(c) without due authority interferes with any flag or mark or any apparatus used for the purposes of the manoeuvres, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ten rupees.

CHAPTER II

FIELD FIRING AND ARTILLERY PRACTICE

7. Definitions.—In this Chapter

(a) "Field firing" includes air armament practice;

(b) "notified area" means an area defined in a notification issued under sub-section (1) of section 9.

8. Power of Provincial Government to authorise field firing and artillery practice.—(1) The Provincial Government may by notification in the local official Gazette, define any area as an area within which for a specified term of years the carrying out periodically of field firing and artillery practice may be authorised.

(2) The Provincial Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, authorise the carrying out of field firing and artillery practice throughout a notified area or any specified part thereof during any period or periods specified in the notification.

(3) Before any notification under sub-section (2) is issued the Provincipal Government shall publish notice of its intention to issue such notification as early as possible in advance of the issue of the notification and no such notification shall be issued until the expiry of two months from the date of the first publication of the notice in the local official Gazette.

(4) The notice required by sub-section (3) shall be given by publication in the local official Gazette and shall also be given throughout the notified area by publication in some newspaper circulating in and in the language commonly understood in that area and by beat of drum and by affixation in all prominent places of copies of said notice in the language of the locality and in such other manner as may be prescribed by rules made under section 13 and shall be repeated by like publication one week as nearly as may be before the commencement of the period or of each period specified in the notification :

Provided that the fact of the said beat of drum and affixation shall be verified in writing by one headman and two other literate inhabitants of the locality and provided further that such notice by the beat of drum shall be given seven and two days as nearly as may be before the commencement of such field firing and artillery practice..

9. Powers exercisable for purposes of field firing and artillery practice.—Where a notification under sub-section (2) of section 9 has been issued such persons as are included in the forces engaged in field firing of artillery practice may, within the notified area or specified part thereof during the specified period or periods,—

(a) carry out field firing and artillery parctice with lethal missiles ; and

(b) exercise, subject to the provisions of sections 3 and 4, any of the rights conferred by section 3 on forces engaged in military manoeuvres :

Provided that the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 3 shall not debar entry into or interference with any place specified in that sub-section, if it is situated in an area declared to be a danger zone under sub-section (2) of this section, to the extent that may be necessary to ensure the exclusion from it of persons and domestic animals :

Provided further that in the case of a dwelling house occupied by women adequate warning shall be given through a local inhabitant and entry shall be effected after such warning in the presence of two respectable inhabitants of the locality.

(2) The Officer Commanding the forces engagaed in any such practice may, within the notified area or specified part thereof, declare any area to be a danger zone, and thereupon the Collector shall, on application made to him by the Officer Commanding the forces engaged in the practice, prohibit the entry into and secure the removal from such danger zone of all persons and domestic animals during the times when the discharge of lethal missiles is taking place or there is danger to life or health.

10. Compensation.—The provisions of sections 5 and 6 shall apply in the case of field firing and artillery practice as they apply in the case of military manoeuvres :

Provided that the compensation payable under this section shall include compensation for exclusion or removal from any place declared to be a danger zone of persons or domestic animals, such compensation shall be disbursed at not less than the minimum rates prescribed by rules made under section 13 before the exclusion or removal is enforced, and shall also include compensation for any loss of empolyment or deterioration of crops resulting from any such exclusion or removal.

11. Offences.—If, during any period specified in a notification issued under sub-section (2) of section 9, any person within a notified area :

(a) wilfully obstructs or interferes with the carrying out of field firing or artillery parctice, or

(b) without due authority enters or remains in any camp, or

(c) without due authority enters or remains in any area declared to be a danger zone at a time when entry thereto is prohibited, or

(d) without due authority interferes with any flag or mark or target or any apparatus used for the purposes of the practice, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ten rupees.

CHAPTER III

12. Power to make rules.—The Provincial Government may by notification in the local official Gazette make rules :

(a) prescribing the manner in which the notices required by sub-section (2) of section 2 and sub-section (2) of section 9 shall be published in the areas concerned ;

(b) regulating the use under this Act of land for maneouvres or field firing and artillery practice in such manner as to secure the public against danger and to enable the manoeuvres, or practice, to be carried out without interference and with the minimum inconvenience to the inhabitants of the areas affected ;

(c) regulating the procedure of the Revenue Officers and commissions referred to in section 6 in such manner as to secure due publicity regarding the method or making claims for compensation and preferring appeals from original awards of compensation, the expeditious settlement of claims and of appeals and the payment of compensation so far as possible direct to the claimants ; and

(d) defining the principles to be followed by the Revenue Officers and commissions referred to in section 6 in assessing the amount of compensation to be awarded.

(SHRAVANA 10, SAKA ERA 1900) | No. 1099

Law and Parliamentary Affairs Secretariat

Notification, No. LAW 116 LCE 78
Bangalore, dated 1st August 1978.

Whereas Notification No. LAW 116 LCE 78 dated 25th July 1978 under sub-section (2) of Section 13 of the Karnataka Civil Courts Act, 1964 (Karnataka Act No. 21 of 1964) has been issued by the Government of Karnataka, in consultation with the High Court of Karnataka varying with effect from the 14th day of August 1978 the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Munsiff's Court, Chintamani and the Munsiff's Court, Chickballapur by excluding Bagepalli Taluk from the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Munsiff's Court, Chintamani and including the said taluk within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Munsiff's Court, Chickballapur ;

And whereas, representations have been made to the High Court and to the Hon'ble Chief Justice of the High Court of Karnataka by a large number of people of Pathapalya, Mittemari and Gulur Hobli of Bagepalli Taluk and also by the Members of the Bar Association, Chintamani, that the inclusion of Bagepalli Taluk within the local limits of the jurisdiction of Munsiff's Court, Chickballapur would cause considerable inconvenience to the residents of the Bagepalli Taluk as most of the villages in Bagepalli Taluk are nearer to Chintamani than to Chickballapur ;

And whereas pending consideration of the said representations, the High Court of Karnataka has recommended that the Notification No. LAW 116 LCE 78 dated 25th July 1978 be kept in abeyance ,

Now, therefore, the Government of Karnataka hereby keep the said Notification dated 25th July 1978 in abeyance until further orders.
